Slayer of Ruth Cruger To Be Tried October 25 Man Who Killed New York Girl Will Face Jury at

Rologna WASHINGTON, June 3 .- The Amercan Embassy at Rome notified the State Department to-day that the trial of Alfredo Cocchi, charged with the murder of Ruth Cruger, in New York City, will begin October 25, at the open-ing of the Assizes at Bologna.

Cocchi had a motor cycle repair shop at 542 West 127th Street, Manhattan. In February, 1917, the body of Ruth Cruger, who had gone to the shop to inquire about repairs for a machine, was found buried in the cellar of the Cocchi was married. When the search conducted by the police for Ruth search conducted by the police for Ruth Cruser's body was directed to his place he disappeared, leaving his wife in charge of the shop. By the time the girl's body was found he had sailed for Italy. The next heard about him was that he was in Bologna. He was arrested there and confessed the crime, The Italian government refused the request of the American State Department for his extradition and announced he would be tried in Bologna.

High Cost of Living Hits $25,000 Alimony

Mrs. Helen De Bower, Fearing Destitution, Wants Former Husband to Aid Her

The high cost of living has hit Mr Helen De Bower and her $25,000 at cony. She sued in the Supreme Cour esterday to set aside an agreemen vestorday to set aside an agreement she made at the time she obtained a divorce from Herbert F. De Bower, in Chicago, to accept the $25,000 and $150 a month. She asserts she accepted this mancial arrangement on the statement of her husband that he was worth $75,000 and had an income of $12,000. She has since learned, she declares, that Mr. De Bower is worth $500,000 and his annual income is more 500,000 and his annual income is more

Mrs. De Bower complains that she obtained a divorce on evidence fur-nished by her husband, who also enpaged counsel for her. She pleads that she has only $5,000 left and will soon he destitute unless she can compel her former husband to make further pro-meter for her. Decision was reserved.
